

Assesment Reflection

Each assesment you complete is worth more than a simple mark on a piece of paper, it represents the quality of your revision technique, a record of your understanding and, most importantly, it allows you to make plans and alterations to ensure that you can improve you achievement in each and every section of work you produce.

Topic

Mark

Grade

Date

Was this a Success?

What Went Well?

What Went Badly?

Topics I need to work on

How much time do you need?

What Revision Techniques will you be using?

How will you be using your friends and family to help?

What will you do to improve exam technique?

What will you do to improve your understanding?